New Arrivals Among the Suits, Coats and Dresses

Bearing the approval of Dame Fashion—and hurried here by express—come the latest expressions of midwinter styles in coats, suits and dresses.

The New Velvet Dresses

are in various combinations of silk and velvet, chiffon overdrape waists with velvet skirts and velvet that is fur trimmed. Chiefly in brown and black in plain and corded velvets. $22.50 to $65.

Suits For Afternoon Wear

Chiefly in broadcloth, though some very fetching effects in white serge are also shown. The broadcloths come in white and the leading pastel shades. These are identical copies of the suits that are seen wherever New York's smart set congregates, $40 to $65.

Broadcloth Topcoats For Street or Opera

The smartest dressy topcoat we have seen this season. Entirely new and different. Made of black chiffon broadcloth with a rich sheen and luster. The extremely wide revers are of black satin, and the ten-inch turn back cuff is similarly treated. Sleeves are wide so as not to crush the sleeves of dainty gowns. Cut full in back, buttons on side. Pean de cygne silk lined in colors. $45.

Broadcloth coats for street wear are of course severely tailored, in the mannish styles. Our only excuse for mentioning them is this new shipment which gives us probably the largest stock in town. $20 to $45.

Handsome Opera Capes Are In.

Garments of quiet elegance for the opera and social season. Made of handsome chiffon broadcloth, richly lined with Persian silks. The silk fringe on bottom adds a finishing effective touch. In white and the leading evening and pastel shades. $20 to $75.

Sweaters Make Good Gifts

There's coziness and cheer in a sweater to delight any girl—specially if she inclines to athletics.

Sweaters here cover a wide range of styles and prices from the neat, inexpensive sweater at $1.98, to the long automobile sweater at $15. Any other in between price, too, from $2.48, $3.50, $4, $5.50 up.
All prices come in a full range of colors.
